

XM is the first decent radio programing to come along in decades. Regular commercial radio is absolutely unbearable and XM offers an alternative. Their traffic reports run constantly instead of having to listen to 15 minutes of lousy programing before finding out that I'm stuck in a traffic mess that goes on for miles. Show some fortitude and integrity and go against Clear Channel and their ilk and do something for the public.